4. Design Patterns & Elements

Borders & Lines

Clean lines create structure and hierarchy. Use subtle borders to define sections without overwhelming.

Subtle Border (1px)

Light gray borders for cards and containers

Medium Border (2px)

Slightly stronger emphasis for important sections

Accent Border

Left border accent for highlights and callouts

Divider Line

Section one content

Section two content

Background Patterns

Subtle patterns add visual interest while maintaining professionalism.

Subtle Grid

Diagonal Lines

Dot Pattern

Gradient Overlay

Spacing & Whitespace

Generous whitespace creates a premium feel and improves readability.

Large Padding (32px)

Content with generous breathing room

Medium Padding (24px)

Standard content spacing

Compact Padding (16px)

Tighter spacing for dense information

Shadows & Elevation

Subtle shadows create depth and hierarchy without being distracting.

Light Shadow

Cards, containers

Medium Shadow

Hover states, modals

Large Shadow

Dropdowns, overlays

Dear Client,

This is a sample of how letterhead would appear with our brand identity. The design maintains professionalism while ensuring brand recognition through consistent use of typography, colors, and layout.

Notice the clean hierarchy, generous whitespace, and subtle use of the brand's signature navy and gold color palette.

Sincerely,

Sarah Mitchell
